Lights, camera, action – ready to roll under the gaze of historic Milton Abbey

MILTON Abbey, in the heart of rural Dorset, is the location for a new film about a monk who gives up his cloistered existence for the rough and tunable of journalism. Starring Paula Hamilton, best known for the Volkswagen commercial which sees her discarding everything but the car, Monk Dawson is being filmed this week at the Abbey in Milton Abbas near Blandford.

The film also features local youngsters from the Swish of the Curtain Drama School in Southbourne, Bournemouth as extras.
